The Court made the following:

O R D E R:

It is stated by the learned counsel for the petitioner,
Sri V. Parabrahmasastry, that during the pendency of this writ petition, there has been a substantial revision with regard to payment of rents and, therefore, no further cause survives in this writ petition requiring any further adjudication.

However, if the petitioner has any further claim, it would be open for the petitioner to make an appropriate representation before the Government-2nd respondent, which shall duly be considered, in accordance with law, uninfluenced by disposal of this writ petition. The representation, if any, to be made by the petitioner may be considered by the 2nd respondent within eight (8) weeks from the date of making such representation.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of without any order as to costs.
